Index to THE CLASSICAL WEEKLY, Volume XXVI

October 3, 1932 — May 22, 1933

This Index has been worked out along the lines followed in the General Index to Volumes I–XVI, and in the separate Indexes to Volumes XVII–XXV.

In the preparation of this Index I have been very greatly aided by my Secretary, Miss Bertha Medlock.

The name of an author and the title of an article are given in full only once, at the place where the author's surname appears in the alphabetical sequence. The title of a book reviewed will be found in full only where the name of the author appears in the list given under the caption "Reviews". To the titles of articles or subjects (e. g. "Agriculture in the Life of Pompeii") the names of the authors are not attached; one can readily find the names by looking up the page or the pages specified.

In determining the places of certain items in the general alphabetical sequence, or the places of items within a group or a paragraph, certain initial words, "An" and "The", "Der" and "Die", are disregarded.

"Aeneid: Vergil" = 'For the Aeneid see under Vergil'; "Alexander the Great: Reviews, Cary, Wilcken" = 'see Reviews, under the names Cary, Wilcken'; "see above", "see below" = 'see above', 'see below' under the same caption (i. e. in the same paragraph or group of entries).

PLACE'S LATIN BOOKS

By PERLEY OAKLAND PLACE, Litt.D., Professor of Latin, Syracuse University

A COMPLETE two-year Latin course which follows the recommendations of the Report of the Classical Investigation and postpones the subjunctive and the more difficult forms and principles to the beginning of the second year. These are presented in Intermediate Latin Lessons, and in the Enlarged Edition of First Year Latin.

Simplicity, a gradual approach, a systematic foundation, a broadly cultural background, carefully graded, interesting Latin readings, short lessons, thorough drills, correlation of the Latin constructions and English grammar, interesting talks in English on Roman life, reviews which enable the pupil to realize the advance he is making, are some of the features which distinguish these books.

First Year Latin	429 pages	$1.32
Intermediate Latin Lessons	146 pages	.40
First Year Latin, Enlarged (Including Intermediate Latin Lessons)		1.40
Second Latin Course	608 pages	1.68

FIRST IN THE FIELD OF THE CLASSICS

A COMPLETE MODERN SERIES FOR HIGH SCHOOL YEARS

A modern course which retains the time-tested principles of experienced teaching.

LATIN LESSONS
Smith-Thompson

A modern adaptation of the most popular first-year textbook in Latin ever published.

SECOND LATIN
Scudder

A unified course in Roman life and history. Selections adapted from Eutropius and Livy, and from Caesar's Gallic and Civil Wars.

THIRD LATIN
Kelsey-Meinecke

Selections from Cicero, Pliny, Sallust, and Livy. Illustrated by photographs secured by Professor Kelsey in his travels.

FOURTH LATIN
Carlisle-Richardson

Selections from Virgil, Ovid, Catullus, Horace, and Martial, broadening the field of fourth-year Latin. Illustrations, full notes, objective tests.

All four titles conform in principle and content to the generally approved recommendations of the Classical Investigation and to College Entrance Examination Board requirements.
